

UTICA COLLEGE

Executive Lecture Series

“THE FUTURE OF DIVERSITY”

CECELIA “CI CI” HOLLOWAY ’79

Holloway is a consultant for the People & Talent team at CSM Sport and Entertainment. Prior to this, she worked as chief of HR and Diversity for Social Architects, LLC., as well as the vice president of human resources for Lincoln Financial Media, and as managing director of HR and Inclusive Leadership/Global Talent at UBS Investment Bank, one of the world’s largest global financial institutions. She also worked as senior vice president of Diversity, Organizational Effectiveness and Training at Paramount Pictures, where she led the Diversity and Learning Centers of Excellence, and served as communications chairperson of Viacom’s corporate wide diversity initiative.

She has led global teams at many well-known companies including Showtime, MTV Networks, Viacom Broadcasting and Radio, Paramount Digital Entertainment, Virgin Interactive Entertainment, Westwood Studios, CBS Television and Paramount Pictures.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 18, 7 P.M.
BRVENIK CENTER FOR BUSINESS EDUCATION
CLARK CITY CENTER

BUSES WILL BE LEAVING STREBEL CIRCLE AT 6:30 P.M. AND RETURNING AT APPROXIMATELY 8:15 P.M.

FREE AND OPEN TO EVERYONE

Holloway’s lecture is part of the Executive Lecture Series sponsored by the Business of Economics Department of Utica College.